

You're Invited !!!

To a Community Presentation

By Speaker Perry Mason

Topic: Positive Relationships and Mental Health

This free workshop will address the negative impact of bullying and social media in our daily lives and some effective intervention techniques for adults, youth and children. Participants will learn, at a causal level, why these behaviors occur and some effective, easy ideas on how to prevent and intervene when they do occur.

Perry Mason completed 34 years of policing with the Hamilton Police Service. He retired in 2013, his assignments varied widely during his tenure. For 10 years, he has worked as a School Resource Officer. Before retiring, Perry sat on several Restorative Justice committees and was instrumental in bringing the concepts to stakeholders in the City of Hamilton. He has successfully evolved Restorative Justice practices into an Alternative Dispute Resolution program which is effective for Workplace Restoration. He is a sought after speaker with respect to issues surrounding Bullying and Restorative Practices. He has recently begun to speak to educators about issues surrounding mental health and anxiety in the classroom.
