

NEW AWARDS AT IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

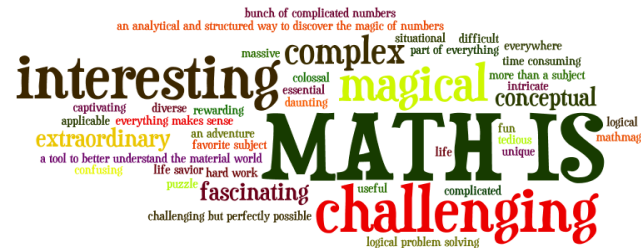

This Photo by Unknown author is licensed under CC BY-NC-ND.

Math Growth Mindset Award

This award will be given to the student who, in their Math learning:

- demonstrates wonder and a willingness to explore and take risks
- understands that mistakes promote growth (we learn from our mistakes)
- demonstrates a “can do” attitude
- perseveres even when tasks are challenging (does not quit when the math gets difficult)

What would this look like and sound like?

- Being excited to start math each day
- Not worrying if the answer is right, more concerned with the steps used to solve
- Stays positive – no negative talk
- Doesn't give up – keeps on trying
- Not worrying about how long it takes to solve a problem
- Talking with peers about how they solved questions

Responsible Citizen Award

This award will be given to the student who:

- accepts responsibility for their own actions
- promotes peace in the school
- gives witness to Catholic teachings

What would this look like and sound like?

- Admits to things they have done wrong
- Does not blame others for things they have done
- Does not stand by and watch others be hurt
- Speaks calmly
- Thinks about WWJD in the Gospels

A Caring IHM Family Member Award

This award will be given to the student who:

- demonstrates caring, kindness and understanding within their classroom and/or the entire school community
- demonstrates these same qualities within their own family, in the IHM church or in the wider community

What would this look like and sound like?

- Says, “Good Morning” to staff and students
- Genuinely asks others “How are you?”
- Holds doors, has nice manners
- Asks people, “Are you ok?” if they are feeling down or hurt
- Shows these qualities in their classroom, in the school, at home, at church and in the community

Collaborative Contributor Award

This award will be given to the student who:

- finds meaning in all aspects of collaborative work willingly shares their own ideas in a kind and respectful way
- listens attentively and respects the ideas and contributions of others

What would this look like and sound like?

- Enjoys working with others as leader, listener, speaker, team member
- Says, "What do you think?" or "What would you like to do?"
- Shares their ideas in a nice way
- Is not bossy or rude
- Says, "Great idea." or "I like how you did that."
- Listens well and does not interrupt

Effective Communicator Award

This award will be given to the student who:

- speaks, writes and listens honestly, respectfully and sensitively
- responds compassionately and fairly to all
- communicates in a positive manner, keeping the gospel values foremost in their mind. (WWJD?)

What would this look like and sound like?

- Speaks kindly, does not try to hurt others feelings
- Does not write hurtful things about others
- Listens attentively at all times
- Tells the truth
- Thinks before they speak
- Speaks with others feelings in mind
- Thinks What would Jesus do or say in my place?